

Two web sites with a variety of diverse poetry styles from across the ages of writing.

Poetry 180 was created by Billy Collins, the former Poet Laureate of the United States. The title comes from the concept of a school year which is made up of approximately 180 days. Collins has selected these poems for teachers and students to enjoy.

<http://www.loc.gov/poetry/180/>

The Poetry Out Loud web site was created for a national contest, one in which Sion is currently participating.

<http://poetryoutloud.org/>